Welcome to the 2016 car season! As I write this month's piece, I am praying for good weather for our club spring cruise to Deer Creek State Park where we'll have a picnic, hang out for a bit and then cruise back roads back up to Grove City then you can head on home.

Of course all week long the weather was to be good on Saturday until Thursday when it started calling for rain. There is still Friday to hope for a change and even Saturday morning. Let's hope. If it does turn out and we do have the cruise, come on out! There's nothing better than being in a long parade of classic GTOs rolling down the back roads.

But, as I said on the start of this piece this year's car season has started. I have begun posting my weekly messages on the club website (www.gtoaco.com) in the Local Forum. Don't worry. No sign on is needed to see that forum and see the weekly posting. So get on there and get with us.

Our club is pretty busy this season putting on 3 events. Our annual Indian Uprising All Pontiac Show, the Summer Nite Cruise-In 2 show the day before our all Pontiac show and the 2nd Annual Battle of the Brands cruise-in at the Big Walnut Grill in Sunbury.

We will need a lot of voluntary help from members to pull all these events off this year. Oh and please cross your fingers, hope and/or pray for good weather on all of them. The Summer Nite 2 and our Indian Uprising are being held at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Dublin (Metro Place). We got a great rate for hotel rooms so come out for the Saturday Summer Nite 2 Cruise-In and spend the night at the hotel for the Indian Uprising Sunday! A flyer and details are in this Paw Prints.

I hope to see many of you out with us this season as well as at our meetings where we'll be planning and looking for help for all these events. Until then have fun and stay safe!

—Kevin

Spring Turkey Run; Daytona

by Steve Schaeffer

The 27th Annual Daytona Spring Turkey Run was the last weekend in March at the famous Daytona International Speedway. The event featured approximately 1,500 show cars, 500 cars for sale, and a massive swap meet with hundreds of vendors. On Sunday there was an annual classic car parade lap around the legendary speedway for the show cars and we were there.

The garage area was also open and there were vintage NASCAR race cars on display. There were thousands of spectators checking out all the classic cars and shopping for both new and used parts. It looked like the vendors were hitting a home run and of course you don't have to worry about snow in March in Florida.

This is a very low key event put on by the Daytona Beach Street Rods. There are no awards, just a lot of fun.

If it was manufactured in the USA there was a good chance to see it there. Of course there were a huge number of '60's vintage muscle cars, some pretty well engineered rat rods, and even pre-war classics.

My favorite race car was David Pearson's '61 Pontiac Catalina with a 368 horsepower 389 Pontiac Super Duty engine that was really over 400 horsepower.

I went with my friend Stuart Barson in his '57 Studebaker Hawk. It is amazing how much attention a vintage car gets. Just like when I go to a show with my GTO or 442 you hear, "I had one just like it". "Is the car for sale?" "What's your bottom Dollar?" "Did you restore it yourself?" "Who built the engine?" "Who painted the car?"

Then you also get the self-appointed experts that want to tell you what is incorrect on your restoration. Fortunately the thumbs up, the waves from friendly people when you are driving, and the attention the car gets at the shows and when you stop for gas make it all worth it. After a long winter in the north this show gets the juices running.
