First of all, allow me to apologize for last month's mess up. I neglected to put the July meeting minutes into last month's edition of the Paw Prints. I am rectifying that error and including those minutes in this month's edition on the page just preceding the August meeting minutes. Again, sorry about that and can only chalk it up to age and forgetfulness.

The club has started having regular club meetings again back at the Hickory House. The August meeting was held there. Please come if you can and feel safe in doing so.

As mentioned a couple times within this month's edition, the club picnic will be on September 19, 2020 at the Farlow's.

We will also hold our September Club Meeting there.

Most important for this month is that we will be having our All Pontiac Indian Uprising on Sunday, September 6 at the Polaris Quaker Steak and Lube! QSL is excited to have us and as long as we practice social distancing, wear masks, and remind our attendees to do so, we will be just fine. We will have hand sanitizer and masks available if folks forget their own. We will also forego an awards presentation and take awards to the winners at their cars.

Additionally, we start an hour later so please consider coming at 8am (instead of 7am) to help setup. We need volunteers to help but also to judge. Judges will receive lunch this year AND only one judge per class making the judging and tabulation easier and hopefully faster. Remember the more help we have the easier it is! The more judges we have the faster the judging goes. We hope these changes make the show better for everyone! If you can and want to help, reach out to Ron Cozzo or me (rcozzo@earthlink.net & krusso_sp@hotmail.com).

I hope to see a lot of members at our All Pontiac Indian Uprising and/or the club picnic! Until then, stay safe, and healthy!

's Letter

As I 'm writing this the 36th Annual Indian Uprising is going to happen on Sunday of Labor Day Weekend (September 6th). At our August meeting we confirmed that we would proceed with support from Quaker Steak and Lube. The trophies are delivered along with hand sanitizer. The volunteer sign-up sheet is out to everyone to review. I have had enough conversations with folks in the Pontiac community to know that the show is being widely anticipated and many folks are looking forward to coming out to spend a day with friends they may not have seen this year. I do hope that our membership is able to come out and support the show. We are making changes to our registration and judging activities to reduce our work load during the show but we will need the support of several members to be successful.

Meanwhile, the local car show scene is showing some signs of coming to life. Der Dutchman drew over 400 cars last Thursday. Several other shows and events are starting to happen. I do know of one cruise-in in South Charleston last week that was shut down because of complaints that social distancing guidelines were not being followed. The message is that as long as we pay attention to the guidelines we can successfully conduct our car show.

The annual club picnic will be at Pam and Stan Farlow ' s house on September 19. There is plenty of room for social distancing and to separate ourselves from the general public. The club will provide meat, bread, condiments, and drinks. As usual we will eat at noon. We asked that the members bring a covered dish or dessert. Our barn is being redone so we will have more space to get out of the sun or weather. We are also having the September club meeting at the Picnic. Come on out and join us for a good day with your GTO friends.

October will be our 2nd annual corporate meeting. The meeting is to elect officers and discuss how the club did this year and what we should change to make the club better suit our member ' s needs. For family reasons I will not continue as president. I believe the rest of the officers and directors are willing to continue. I have offered to continue storing the club trailer, responding to the GTOAA annual survey, and to take care of the government filings. If someone is willing to take care of the mail distribution of the Paw Prints, the president ' s job would be much less demanding for whoever is willing to lead the club.

As the evenings begin to cool a bit the, GTO is running great and is a real pleasure to cruise around the area. Wherever we go we receive positive feedback and we make a few people smile. If you haven ' t had your GTO out and about you should just do it---it might be fun for you.

Meeting Minutes August 12, 2020

The meeting was called to order by President Stan Farlow

In attendance were members Lonnie McLaughlin, Stan Farlow, Jim Lowry, Brent Barnham, Brad Blackburn, Kevin Russo, Ron Cozzo and Bill Sigg.

Treasurer's report – Lonnie McLaughlin gave the treasurer's report. Kevin Russo motioned to accept; Brad Blackburn 2nd.

Feedback on recent car shows and Corona virus protocols – Most events are ad hoc but those that are organized have DJs constantly reminding of social distancing and wearing masks.

Indian Uprising – Kevin Russo visited Quaker Steak and Lube and spoke the store manager. He is excited for us to have our event. All his events have been canceled; even his bike night is significantly smaller than years past. The incident there during what was supposed to be Good Guys weekend, only occurred because of reckless burnouts. Discussion ensued around the show and procedures. We will ask DJ to also make constant reminders to social distance and wear masks. We will have individual hand sanitizer bottles and masks for attendees, large pump bottles at the tables. We will ask Brian to DJ. The awards will be given out to car owners at their cars in place of an awards ceremony at the end. Kevin Russo will reach out to Jeff Inskeep about dash plaques and to DJ GTO for sponsorship of them. Stan will take care of the insurance. We expect a large turn out.

Club trailer maintenance, clean up and inventory – 9am on 8/22 volunteers are needed help clean up an inventory the contents of the club trailer. Also trailer stone guard needs installed on the front of the trailer. Please contact Stan if you can help.

Club Picnic - The picnic will again be at the Farlow's on September 19, 2020. Bring a chair and a side dish or dessert. August club meeting will be held at the picnic. Please RSVP to Stan (skfarlow@aol.com).

October Annual Meeting and Election of Officers - We will be in need of at least one new officer but nominations for all offices will be accepted. All but Stan agreed to stay in their office.

Zoo Show in October? - We do not know if this show is going to be held. Nothing on the internet about it. We will ask Inskeep. (NOTE: After the meeting, I found out that it is scheduled for the first SATURDAY of October right now. Inskeep will get more info).

September Meeting Location – The meeting will be at the club picnic on Saturday, September 19, 2020 at the Farlow's.

Open Discussion – Lonnie MAY have his dash gauges working.
