40th All Pontiac Indian Uprising report- Ron Cozzo reported we had 50 entrants in the show and 13 club members cars. All in all it was a fantastic day and a great turnout. The 2025 show will again be at the Quaker Steak and lube with a unanimous vote to keep it All Pontiac and at the same location, Sate will be August 31 2025. Dino Martinez brought up the a couple items to address one was that the trophies were not on display out of the box they come in and we didn't have a 50/50. It was explained that the problem is with enough volunteers to help with them. Dino volunteered to assist in getting the trophies out and with the 50/50.

New and renewed members at the Uprising: New members that join at our All Pontiac show will be valid through the next year. Members wishing to renew will need to pay their dues in January.

Continue discussion – We are still looking for a method to make meetings available as a Zoom type meeting or an audio dial in meeting for those that want to attend but cannot. Table this for anyone that has ideas until next month's meeting. Please, if you have any questions that you may have used please let us know.
