Review of Pontiacs in Pigeon Forge Tennessee LeConte Center 6/5-6/7- President Jon Stottsberry and Ronda Osborne attended and said that the show was very nice and even with the rain had a great turnout.

Pontiac Oakland Club International convention Louisville Ky 6/8-6/12 – Attending club members were less than pleased at how they could not gain access to the indoor venue until Wednesday. Prior to that they were set up in the parking lot outside.

GTOAA Nationals Kingsport Tennessee 6/17-6/21 – The show was smaller than expected probably due to the threat of storms and inability to get all cars inside. Approximately 60 cars were inside including a few popular vote cars that were mostly missed by those voting as they had already cast votes for cars outside. The venue was beautiful however the temperature inside bordered on freezing. Rob Wilson rode along with Ron Cozzo and we attended the Bristol Speedway track day which was extremely exciting.

Ames Tri-Power Nationals Norwalk Ohio 7/18-7/20 – Jon Stottsberry & Ronda Osborne, Ron Cozzo, Kevin Russo, Rob Wilson, Keith & Connie Stevens, Bill Sigg, Jeff Frazier, Max Trier and Chris McCracken are going.

Discussion of upcoming club sponsored shows – Brad Blackburn passed around a volunteer signup sheet for the 9th Annual Battle of The Brands show. Everything is on track and ready to go. Ron Cozzo said the 41st Annual All Pontiac Indian Uprising Car Show is on course and ready to go. Ron needs to order trophies, and a motion was made for payment of them. Rob Wilson, Kevin Russo 2nd.

Open Discussion – Kevin Russo said that the Delaware car show is scheduled for October 11th. More information in future meetings.

Motion to adjourn – Kevin Russo, 2nd Brad Blackburn.

Next Meeting will be at the Original Hickory House in Reynoldsburg on August 13th.
